

To Whom It May Concern:

Please help us not lose our KLove Christian Station here in Arizona. It has not only helped me on a daily basis but my teenagers listen to it in their cars. It has helped them to stay out of trouble and live a good, Godly life.

It has also helped my friends as well. If you take away Christian radio, you take away what good is left in the United States.

Sincerely,

J. Johnston